Australia	15/03/2022	Domestic organic regulation framework: Consultation regulation impact statement	The Australian Commonwealth Department of Agriculture, Water and the Environment (DAWE) is undertaking a public consultation process on potential improvements to Australia's domestic organic regulatory framework. As part of this process, DAWE has released a Consultation Regulation Impact Statement (RIS) available at https://haveyoursay.awe.gov.au/organics. The RIS examines possible policy problems with the current system, as well as potential regulatory and non-regulatory options for reform. One of the regulatory options identified in the document is the introduction of a mandatory domestic organics standard which would apply to products sold as organic in Australia, including imports. The exact nature of regulation as it applies to imports would be advised at a later date, pending consultation outcomes and further consideration by the Australian government.		Consumer information, labelling (TBT); Prevention of deceptive practices and consumer protection (TBT)	14/05/2022

Australia	02/03/2022	Priority Review pathway for biologicals: feasibility, potential eligibility criteria and determination process	Australia's Therapeutic Goods Administration (TGA) is seeking feedback on a proposed priority pathway for assessment of certain novel and life-saving biologicals. The proposed 'Priority Review' pathway will align with the pathway already in place for medicines and offer a faster formal assessment pathway for biologicals in certain circumstances. This will allow consumers with life-threatening diseases or seriously debilitating conditions to access these treatments in less time if the assessment results in a decision by the TGA to include the biological in the Australian Register of Therapeutic Goods (ARTG). Australia does not currently have a formal mechanism to expedite the assessment and inclusion of biologicals in the ARTG. Depending on the feedback received, the TGA could propose to the Australian Government that a priority pathway be implemented for the pre-market assessment and registration of novel biologicals that address unmet clinical needs for Australian consumers. This would require changes to the Therapeutic Goods Regulations 1990. The TGA is conducting a public consultation on the proposed pathway between February 2022 and March 2022 to seek feedback on: whether stakeholders support introduction of such a pathway; eligibility criteria for the Priority Review pathway for biologicals; the Process for determining whether a biological application meets the eligibility criteria for Priority Review	30 - PHARMACEUTICAL PRODUCTS; 11.120 - Pharmaceutics	Protection of human health or safety (TBT)	01/05/2022

Canada	01/04/2022	Proposed Changes to the Clean Fuel Regulations	On 19 December 2020, Environment and Climate Change Canada (ECCC) published the proposed Clean Fuel Regulations (CFR) in Canada Gazette, Part I. ECCC is now considering modification to the carbon intensity (CI) reduction requirements of the CFR, as well as an increase to the early credit creation period.1. The CFR would require liquid fossil fuel primary suppliers (i.e. producers and importers) to reduce the carbon intensity (CI) of the liquid fossil fuels they produce in and import into Canada. The reduction requirement being considered is 3.5 grams of carbon dioxide equivalent per megajoule (gCO2e/MJ) in 2023, increasing to 14 gCO2e/MJ in 2030. The original proposal was 2.4 gCO2e/MJ in 2022, increasing to 12 gCO2e/MJ in 2030. The CI reduction requirement has an impact on the reference carbon intensities used in the calculation of credits. Reference carbon intensities would therefore be updated based on this change. New reference carbon intensities being considered can be viewed on page 5 of Annex 1.2. ECCC is considering increasing the early credit creation period to one year. Credit creation would start in July 2022 after the regulations are published to provide time to register and apply for project recognition or for CI approval. The CI reduction requirement would begin 12 months later, in July 2023. Canada	18/03/2022	Update to the Clean Fuel Regulations	On 19 December 2020, Environment and Climate Change Canada (ECCC) published the proposed Clean Fuel Regulations (CFR) in Canada Gazette, Part I. Further to the comments received during the consultation period, ECCC has modified the following areas of the proposed CFR: 1. The Scope of the CFR has been narrowed to refined gasoline and diesel. As a result, no credits will be provided for GHG reduction or removal projects that reduce the lifecycle carbon intensity of gaseous or solid fossil fuels. The CFR will not set an obligation for light fuel oil, heavy fuel oil as well as kerosene. In addition, volumes of distillate fuel oil used in space heating can be subtracted from a primary supplier's obligation. The ability of a project to create credits will be governed by a quantification method (QM) provided by ECCC. QMs are being developed for enhanced oil recovery (EOR), co-processing, and generic emission reduction projects. In addition, a QM for low-Cl hydrogen will be developed. 2. The Land Use and Biodiversity (LUB) criteria now include more details regarding legislative recognition, modifications to the declarations from a per-batch to a per-contract basis and other reporting and administrative requirements. The coming into force date of the criteria is now set to 1 January 2024. 3. The Fuel Lifecycle Analysis Model has been pre-published. 4. ECCC is developing a mechanism to recognize emission reduction projects in facilities	271012 - Light oils and preparations, of petroleum or bituminous minerals which $\geq 90\%$ by volume "incl. losses" distil at 210°C "ASTM D 86 method" (excl. containing biodiesel); 271019 - Medium oils and preparations, of petroleum or bituminous minerals, not containing biodiesel, n.e.s.; 13.020 - Environmental protection; 03.120 - Quality; 75.160 - Fuels	Protection of the environment (TBT)

Canada	07/03/2022	Clinical Trials for Medical Devices and Drugs Relating to COVID-19 Regulations (55 pages, available in English and French)	In order to address the immediate COVID-19 public health emergency, the Minister of Health made the Interim Order Respecting Clinical Trials for Medical Devices and Drugs in Relation to COVID-19 (IO No. 1) on 23 May 2020 to put in place a more flexible clinical trials pathway for COVID-19 drugs and medical devices. A second Interim Order (IO No. 2) replaced IO No. 1 on 3 May 2021, and transitional provisions carried clinical trials authorized under IO No. 1 into IO No. 2. As interim orders are temporary, the provisions of IO No. 2 were transitioned into regulations to ensure that the Interim Order’s authorizations, obligations, and oversight continue uninterrupted for trials already authorized. The authorization pathway also remains available for new clinical trials for drugs and medical devices related to the diagnosis, treatment, mitigation, or prevention of COVID-19 given the ongoing and unpredictable nature of the COVID-19 pandemic. In addition, the Regulations contain technical provisions to maintain the status quo for clinical trials authorized under the Food and Drug Regulations Medical Devices Regulations and Natural Health Products Regulations on or after 23 May 2020. At the same time, amendments have been made to the Food and Drug Regulations and the Natural Health Products Regulations to reduce the records retention period for clinical trials of drugs and natural health products from 25 to 15	11.040 - Medical equipment; 11.120 - Pharmaceuticals	Other (TBT)

United States of America	31/03/2022	Electronic Chart and Navigational Equipment Carriage Requirements	Advance notice of proposed rulemaking - The Coast Guard seeks public input regarding the modification of the chart and navigational equipment carriage requirements in the Code of Federal Regulations (CFR). This advance notice of proposed rulemaking (ANPRM) outlines the Coast Guard's broad strategy to revise its CFR chart and navigational equipment carriage requirements to implement statutory electronic-chart-use provisions for commercial U.S.-flagged vessels and certain foreign-flagged vessels operating in the waters of the United States. This ANPRM is necessary to obtain additional information from the public before issuing a notice of proposed rulemaking. It will allow us to verify the extent of the requirements for the rule, such as how widely electronic charts currently are used, which types of vessels are using them, the appropriate equipment requirements for different vessel classes, and where the vessels operate, and will thereby allow us to tailor electronic chart requirements to vessel class and location.	47.020.70 - Navigation and control equipment; 33.060 - Radiocommunications	Protection of human health or safety (TBT)	27/06/2022

United States of America	31/03/2022	Occupant Protection for Automated Driving Systems	TITLE: Occupant Protection for Vehicles With Automated Driving Systems AGENCY: National Highway Traffic Safety Administration (NHTSA), Department of Transportation. ACTION: Final rule SUMMARY: This final rule amends the occupant protection Federal motor vehicle safety standards (FMVSSs) to account for future vehicles that do not have the traditional manual controls associated with a human driver because they are equipped with Automated Driving Systems (ADS). This final rule makes clear that, despite their innovative designs, vehicles with ADS technology must continue to provide the same high levels of occupant protection that current passenger vehicles provide. The occupant protection standards are currently written for traditionally designed vehicles and use terms such as "driver's seat" and "steering wheel," that are not meaningful to vehicle designs that, for example, lack a steering wheel or other driver controls. This final rule updates the standards in a manner that clarifies existing terminology while avoiding unnecessary terminology, and, in doing so, resolves ambiguities in applying the standards to ADS-equipped vehicles without traditional manual controls. In addition, this final rule amends the standards in a manner that maintains the existing regulatory text whenever possible, to make clear that this rule maintains the level of crash protection currently provided occupants in more	87 - VEHICLES OTHER THAN RAILWAY OR TRAMWAY ROLLING-STOCK, AND PARTS AND ACCESSORIES THEREOF; 43.040.80 - Crash protection and restraint systems; 03.120 - Quality; 19.020 - Test conditions and procedures in general

United States of America	31/03/2022	Energy Conservation Program: Energy Conservation Standards for Air Cooled, Three-Phase, Small Commercial Air Conditioners and Heat Pumps With a Cooling Capacity of Less Than 65,000 Btu/h and Air-Cooled, Three-Phase, Variable Refrigerant Flow Air Conditioners and Heat Pumps With a Cooling Capacity of Less Than 65,000 Btu/h	Notice of proposed rulemaking and request for comment - The Energy Policy and Conservation Act, as amended ("EPCA"), prescribes energy conservation standards for various consumer products and certain commercial and industrial equipment, including small, large, and very large commercial package air conditioning and heating equipment, of which air cooled, three-phase, small commercial air conditioners and heat pumps with a cooling capacity of less than 65,000 Btu/h and air-cooled, three-phase, variable refrigerant flow air conditioners and heat pumps with a cooling capacity of less than 65,000 Btu/h are categories. EPCA requires the U.S. Department of Energy ("DOE" or "the Department") to consider the need for amended standards each time the relevant industry standard is amended with respect to the standard levels or design requirements applicable to that equipment, or periodically under a six-year-lookback review provision. For the three-phase equipment that is the subject of this notice of proposed rulemaking ("NOPR"), DOE is proposing amended energy conservation standards that rely on new efficiency metrics and align with amended efficiency levels in the industry standard. DOE has preliminarily determined that it lacks clear and convincing evidence required by the statute to adopt standards more stringent than the levels specified in the industry standard. United States of America	30/03/2022	Control of Air Pollution From New Motor Vehicles: Heavy-Duty Engine Standards	TITLE: Control of Air Pollution From New Motor Vehicles: Heavy-Duty Engine and Vehicle Standards AGENCY: Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) ACTION: Proposed rule SUMMARY: The Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) is proposing a rule that would reduce air pollution from highway heavy-duty vehicles and engines, including ozone, particulate matter, and greenhouse gases. This proposal would change the heavy-duty emission control program--including the standards, test procedures, useful life, warranty, and other requirements--to further reduce the air quality impacts of heavy-duty engines across a range of operating conditions and over a longer period of the operational life of heavy-duty engines. Heavy-duty vehicles and engines are important contributors to concentrations of ozone and particulate matter and their resulting threat to public health, which includes premature death, respiratory illness (including childhood asthma), cardiovascular problems, and other adverse health impacts. This proposal would reduce emissions of nitrogen oxides and other pollutants. In addition, this proposal would make targeted updates to the existing Heavy-Duty Greenhouse Gas Emissions Phase 2 program, proposing that further GHG reductions in the MY 2027 timeframe are appropriate considering lead time, costs, and other factors, including market shifts to zero-	43.080 - Commercial vehicles; 13.020.40 - Pollution, pollution control and conservation; 13.040.50 - Transport exhaust emissions

United States of America	08/03/2022	Energy Conservation Program: Energy Conservation Standards for Computer Room Air Conditioners	Notice of proposed rulemaking and request for comment - The Energy Policy and Conservation Act, as amended (EPCA), prescribes energy conservation standards for various consumer products and certain commercial and industrial equipment, including small, large, and very large commercial package air conditioning and heating equipment, of which computer room air conditioners (CRACs) are a category. EPCA requires the U.S. Department of Energy (DOE or the Department) to consider the need for amended standards each time the relevant industry standard is amended with respect to the standard levels or design requirements applicable to that equipment, or periodically under a six-year-lookback review provision. In this document, DOE is proposing amended energy conservation standards for CRACs that rely on a new efficiency metric and are equivalent to those levels specified in the industry standard. DOE has preliminarily determined that it lacks the clear and convincing evidence required by the statute to adopt standards more stringent than the levels specified in the industry standard. This document also announces a public meeting webinar (to be held 13 April 2022) to receive comment on these proposed standards and associated analyses and results.	13.020 - Environmental protection; 23.120 - Ventilators.
